CareTutor

Oliver McGowan Training : Overview and Q&A

Mark Thomson - Head of Learning & Development

CareTutor

What this session is about

- What the Oliver McGowan Mandatory Training actually is
- What CQC will expect
- Funding and future accreditation
- How CareTutor supports you end to end

CareTutor

Why this training exists

- Prevent avoidable harm
- Improve understanding and reasonable adjustments
- Funding and future accreditation
- Driven by lived experience

CareTutor

The legal position (why this is not optional)

- Mandatory for CQC registered providers
- The Code of Practice (Sept 2025) sets the standard
- Training must be appropriate to the role

CareTutor

The simple rule for Tier 1 and Tier 2

- Tier 2: On-site roles
- Tier 1: Back-office roles
- Based on contact and influence

CareTutor

What Tier 1 and Tier 2 involve

Tier 1 (awareness – Non-Client facing roles)

- 90-min e-learning
- PLUS 1-hour live interactive session

Tier 2 (direct care / decision-making)

- Same 90-min e-learning
- PLUS, full-day, in-person training (often run as two half-days)

CareTutor

What CQC will ask you to evidence

- Completion - “Show me that your staff have completed the right tier, including the live element.”
- Application - “How do you know this training changed practice?”
- Governance - “What’s your plan and how are you monitoring it?”

Money and the future

- You can claim money back - Adult Social Care Learning & Development Support Scheme (LDSS)
- Accreditation is coming - NHS England has gone out to procure anational accreditation body for the Oliver McGowan training
- We’ll walk you through both

CareTutor

Funding and how CareTutor helps

- LDSS funding available
- ASC-WDS required
- CareTutor supports end to end
